

6516208701.txt

I beleive satelite radio has the right to broadcast anything that the other land stations do.
why should people be forced to listen to their stupid commercials to get any information if I choose to pay for it by subscription.